2. Describe the variance(s) requested:

A. DEMONSTRATION OF COMPLIANCE WITH SIGN VARIANCE CRITERIA

(Attach additional page(s) if more space is needed)

Section 102-115(d) of the Deerfield Beach Land Development Code states, "a variance may be authorized by the city commission for any required dimensional standard for a sign, including the following: height, area, and location; maximum number of, and minimum setback for signs. A variance shall be deemed denied unless four members of the commission vote in favor of the request for a variance."

A variance from the terms of this sign code shall not be granted by the city commission unless and until a written application for a variance is submitted demonstrating:

- 1. That special conditions and circumstances exist which are peculiar to the land, structure, or buildings involved and which are not applicable to other lands, structures in the same zoning district:

- 2. That the special conditions and circumstances do not result from the actions of the applicant:

- 3. That granting the variance requested will not confer on the applicant any special privilege that is denied by this Code to other lands, buildings, or structures in the same zoning district:

- 4. That literal interpretation of the provisions of this Code would deprive the applicant of the rights commonly enjoyed by other properties in the same zoning district under the terms of this Code and would work unnecessary and undue hardship on the applicant:

- 5. That the variance granted is the minimum variance that will make possible the reasonable use of the land, building, or structure:

- 6. That the grant of the variance will be in harmony with the general intent and purpose of this Code, and that such variance will not be injurious to the area involved or otherwise detrimental to the public welfare:
